

United States District Court District of Massachusetts

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

CRIMINAL NO. 2004-10385-MEL

JEROME WEEKS,
Defendant.

PROCEDURAL ORDER RE MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF DETENTION (#17)

COLLINGS, U.S.M.J.

Since the Government has not filed an opposition to the motion for reconsideration of detention,<sup>1</sup> the Court will reconsider the issue.<sup>2</sup> In that connection, counsel for the defendant is directed to file and serve (1) a current appraisal of the defendant's property at 62-64 Otis Street, Brockton and (2) a certificate of good title. Upon receipt of these documents, the Court will

An investigation by Pre-Trial Services reveals that the defendant was not just convicted of assault on December 16, 1998; he plead guilty to assault with a dangerous weapon. Defendant's counsel is correct that the defendant was not convicted of battery. In undertaking reconsideration, the Court does not take a position as to whether assault with a dangerous weapon is a "crime of violence" as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).
